COURT NOTES.

Circuit Court convened here Monday with the Hon. D. B. Redwine on the bench and Col. A. H. Howard and A. H. Stamper for the Commonwealth, together with our accomplished Clerk and Deputy, Vansant Horton.

The following practicing attorneys are present, to-wit: W. W. McGuire and Wilson Lykins, of West Liberty; John W. Howard, Salyersville; T. C. Johnson, Flat; Chas. Cardwell, Stillwater; John A. Willburn, Clay City; James H. Swango, R. A. Kash and Hon. W. H. Taulbee, Hazel Green; A. F. Byrd, Hon. Joe C. Lykins, Z. T. Hurst, Col. W. L. Hurst, G. B. Stamper, of Campton.

The following are the Grand Jurors, to-wit: Isaac Combs, foreman; Isom Roberts, W. P. Lacy, Andrew Cable, A. L. Sword, John V. Bailey, Wm. H. Blankenship, Brecken Brewer, N. B. Graham, Z. C. Pauder, Jefferson Brewer, J. L. Shull.

List of the Petit Jurors, to-wit: David M. Wells, M. G. Maloney, Joe P. Roberts, Wm. Hollon, Allen C. Brashers, G. W. Salley, A. E. Johnson, Jas. H. Brown, S. H. Haddix, John H. Brooks, D. C. Miller, Jas. Meadows, J. C. Spencer, John A. Johnson, George Clark, F. B. Leadford, Jas. Elkins, John Bush, A. J. Miller, M. M. Shackelford, C. P. Roberts, Elias Shockey, J. P. Taulbee, Charles Byrd.

No doubt every citizen present was raised to a higher standard of justice and had a greater zeal to stay crime, after listening to Judge Redwine's instructions to the Grand Jury, which were, in the whole, pointed, sagacious and eloquent. He emphasized the importance of jurors enforcing the law, and not trying to conjure up excuses for the violators or evil-doers, and to inflict such punishment as would tend to deter the violator from further violations; paying a just tribute to Wolfe county (as usual) in her mode of checking crime.

At 1 o'clock Monday a vast audience, consisting mostly of Democrats, a great many Republicans and a few Populists, assembled in the Court House to hear the three candidates press their righteous (?) claims and give their views on the issues of the day. Mr. William Burch was the first to speak. He seems to be pretty well up on the "currency question," but failed to give us any method by which the country could have "better times—less taxes and more money," as he said. Mr. Seitz was then introduced by Mr. Bereh. He seemed to be pretty well up on Republican tricks, wire pulling, etc. Mr. Seitz had very little to say on the currency, thought it expedient to read some extracts from John Sherman, and said that he favored our present single gold standard. He seemed to know very little about the state affairs, conducted by the Democratic party, but thoroughly understood (?) the "tariff question," and pronounced the Wilson Tariff Bill as "a protective tariff measure." Ere Mr. Seitz resumed his seat there was a clamorous cry for "Lykins! Lykins!" whereupon he arose amid loud applause and delivered one of his masterly Democratic speeches. Mr. Lykins spoke about one hour and a half, devoting about half of his time to the currency issue, giving very accurately his views. He is a sound man for sound currency. Perhaps there is no man in Eastern Kentucky better versed in the topics of the day than Mr. Lykins. He stands square on the Democratic platform, endorses the present State administration, contrasting Kentucky, a Democratic State, with Ohio and other Republican States, as to school funds, systems, etc. He showed that the tax rate had increased from 5 per cent. in 1867, when the Republicans had the State, to 22 per cent. on the hundred dollars in 1895; also showed that in the same period the per capita had increased on school funds from 72 cents to $2.80. Mr. Lykins took five Democratic counties where law and order are enforced by Democratic officials, and contrasted them with five Republican counties where law and order are enforced by Republican officials, and showed that in the Democratic counties it cost the State $487.34 to convict a criminal, where it cost the State $920.92 to convict a criminal in the Republican counties. It is useless for me to give you any more proof on the cost; but the question was asked, "Do we want a change in the State affairs?" But we, the Democracy of that one State that never knew defeat, that never shrank from a hardship, that never bowed to idols or bosses, arise with uncovered heads and answer with one voice, one heart and one mind, "There is no change!" On November 6th this epithet will tell of the political death of Seitz.

William Seitz, of Pennsylvania, Died politically November 6th, 1895, Aged ———.

"O, for the touch of a vanished hand
And the sound of a voice that is still,"

See the mighty host advancing,
Lykins leading on,
Mighty men about us falling—
Opposition almost gone.

Daysboro Items.

Mrs. R. M. Jones, Mrs. Alice Nickell, Mrs. Francis Falben, Mrs. Margaret May, Mr. Arberry Kash, Mr. Robert Nickell and his wife and Alonzo C. Jones, all of Daysboro, went on a visit and pleasure trip and will attend the annual meeting in Magoffin county.

My informant states there were about 1,200 persons at the annual meeting on Sunday.

M. W. Jones has cut the briars and sprouts off of about thirty acres of ground this fall, and is still cutting away.

My informant states that about fifty persons stopped with Mr. Milt Cooper on Saturday night of the annual meeting.

This is a plentiful year; good crops of corn, oats and wheat, and plenty of fruit and a big mast. SUNSHINE.

LEE COUNTY.

Fincastle Gleanings.

Prater & Jones, of Hedges, have moved their entire stock of merchandise in our midst and are now occupying J. D. Stamper's house.

The farmers report better crops this year than ever before.

The following attended the G. A. R. encampment at Louisville: Joseph and Plummer Gentry, E. B. Smyth, S. Kincaid, Jas. F. Kincaid, B. Shackelford, W. S. Morris and Mrs. C. Wiler and daughter. All report a good time, but some got very badly lost.

John Stamper has quit picnicing and gone to saw-milling on Hell Creek.

Wonder where old Tecumseh is?

Everywhere We Go

We find some one who has been cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla, and people on all hands are praising this great medicine for what it has done for them and their friends. Taken in time Hood's Sarsaparilla prevents serious illness by keeping the blood pure and all the organs in a healthy condition. It is the great blood purifier.

HOOD'S PILLS become the favorite cathartic with every one who tries them. 25c. per box.

A Unique Obituary.

The Bosque (Tex.) Comet has the following in regard to the death of one of the citizens of Valley Mills:

"Old Bob Gilmore, the meanest old scoundrel that ever went unhung, was found dead in his bed a few mornings ago. The devil came in the night and took him home; the old boy had a bill of sale of him. We knew him personally, to our sorrow."

Old Bob must have been a peach.

Several of our citizens went to Camp-ton Monday.

KENTUCKY ITEMIZED.

A RESUME OF THE IMPORTANT EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

Things of a Newsworthy Nature Rolled Down to Suit the Convenience of the Hasty Reader—Kentucky Down to Date.

The hickory nut crop was never so large.

Princeton is to have a long distance telephone.

The Muhlenburg Presbytery is in session at Scottsville.

Watermelons are selling at one cent each in Richmond.

Tobacco cutting of the early crops is progressing favorably.

Morgantown is to have a new opera house and office building.

Five divorce suits are on trial in the Montgomery County Court.

Some potato crops are turning out poorer than for many years.

The birds are collecting in flocks, preparatory to emigrating to the South.

The Mexican veterans of Kentucky will meet at Lawrenceburg October 2.

F. E. Cosby was fatally wounded by a sawmill boiler explosion near Mayfield.

The Clark County Teachers' Institute will be held at Georgetown October 22.

Silver ore has just been found on the farm of William Gentry, near Mt. Vernon.

The large Presbyterian church near Vanceburg was destroyed by fire Friday.

The Mexican War Veterans of Kentucky will meet at Nicholasville October 2d.

Judge H. G. Petrie has accepted the nomination for Senator in the Ninth district.

A farmer in Larue county gave a man one half of his tobacco crop to get the other half cut.

It is estimated that Louisville entertained 300,000 visitors during the G. A. R. encampment.

An immense Hardin and Harmony Club was organized at Nicholasville last Monday night.

The great fight for who shall represent Grant county in the next General Assembly is now on.

The Teachers' Association of Hart county will meet at Hammonsville, Larue county, on the 21st.

Circuit Court began at Flemingsburg Monday with the smallest docket in the history of the county.

The Democrats of Butler county have nominated Squire Tom Vass, of Rich-lieu, for Representative.

The various committees for the Orphan Brigade reunion at Bowling Green September 26 are working hard and have all arrangements completed.

The Kentucky weather man is trying to give his constituency autumn leaves before summer leaves if he can.

Thirteen cattle were killed in Madison county by eating Paris green that had been put on tobacco to kill worms.

An old cabin that was used by moonshiners in Bell county many years ago has been torn down and the logs sold.

The Harford Herald names the Hon. E. Dudley Walker for United States Senator since the withdrawal of Buckner.

Squire Coombs, of Owsley county, who had both eyes shot out during the war, walked forty-five miles to hear Col. Bradley speak at London.

Secretary Carlisle, who celebrated his sixtieth birthday last Thursday, has been remembered by many of his Kentucky friends with cakes, cider and other Kentucky products.

Rev. W. M. Combs, of the Jeffersonville neighborhood, Montgomery county, was indicted charged with burning an outhouse belonging to Elder J. B. Green-wade.

Raising cattle is a very profitable industry in Madison county. The other day G. E. Black sold for export 125 head averaging 1,600 pounds. The price paid was $20,000.

A. J. Ballard, who killed Peter Spencer at Owingsville ten years ago, was pardoned Thursday by Gov. Brown. Ballard is a physical wreck, although only forty-four years old.

Judge J. Clyde Nelson, the Democratic nominee for Representative in the Bath-Rowan district, has withdrawn from the race on account of the continued serious illness of his wife, which prevents him from making an active canvass.

A horrible accident occurred at Louisville on Wednesday last, in which six men were killed and several wounded, by the explosion of a caisson. The accident was caused by dropping the caisson on the friction primer of the piece. All the killed and wounded were members of the First Kentucky Artillery.

"Morgan," an old war horse that is a rival of "Ned," the Pennsylvania veteran, is reputed to be 40 years of age, and owned by James W. Smith, cashier of the Harris-Seller Banking Company, of Versailles. "Morgan" was ridden to Versailles by Gen. John Morgan on his famous raid in 1862, being left for a better horse of John Cotton's, which was appropriated. "Morgan" served for years as Mr. Smith's carriage horse, and is now spending his last days on a blue-grass pasture.

Kentucky blue grass will be among the colonial exhibits at the Atlanta Exposition. The grass will be woven into letters spelling the word "Kentucky." Scott county will probably send the first collection of grass.—Georgetown Times.

Judge James J. Hampton, the veteran Democrat of Breathitt, says there is not a bolting Democrat in his county, and that the whole party is enthusiastic in their support of Gen. Hardin and the entire State and local ticket. He says that Breathitt and adjoining counties will give the largest Democratic vote in ten years and wipe the Republicans and their mongrel ideas of mixed schools and similar vicious principles off the face of the earth this fall. Judge Hampton was formerly County Judge of Lee, and is an uncle of K. J. Hampton, of Winchester.

Mrs. E. E. Davis, of San Miguel, Cal., says: "I am trying in a measure to repay the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for the great good their remedy has done me. For years I was a constant sufferer from weak lungs and bronchial asthma. My rest at night was disturbed by a hacking cough, so that I felt miserable the greater part of the time. Many remedies recommended by friends were tried, none of which proved suitable to my case. I did not experience any beneficial results until I began taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. After two bottles of the large size have been used, I am pleased to state, my health is better than it has been for years. The soreness has left my lungs and chest and I can breathe easily. It has done me so much good that I want all who are suffering from lung troubles, as I was, to give it a trial." For sale by John M. Rose.
